Pre-Volstead Ghost Stalks Ald. Maypole

Attorney Joseph A. Kolb and Ald. George M. Maypole left Chicago yesterday morning in Mr. Kolb's touring car. They were bound for the Alderman's country home at Fox Lake. They bowed along right merrily through Cook county, unmolested and care free. In Lake county, on the Belvidere road, near Volo, they passed Deputy Sheriff William Kelly and Policeman Ira Crum, sitting dreamily in the ditch and wondering what had become of all the speeders.

"Well," said Kelly to Crum, "that's a nice car and the driver is a gentlemanly driver. He is inside the speed laws."

Mr. Crum spies a ghost. "Yes," said Crum, "but did you see the ghost in the back seat?" Kelly agreed that he saw something, but that it was too fast for a ghost. Instead of arguing the question they counted their motorcycles and pursued. Because Attorney Kolb drove moderately it was only a minute until they had him over to the side of the road.

What sort of a ghost was it? The officers asked. Attorney Kolb smiled. "The ghost of bygone days," said he. And then, the police say, he admitted that the ghost in the back seat was a table cloth thrown over a barrel of beer—good beer—that he was taking to Ald. Maypole's summer retreat for at least a part of the week-end.

"Well, tell it to the sheriff," said Crum.

Freed on $2,000 Bond.
So away they went to the Lake county courthouse, where Mr. Kolb was charged with violating the anti-beer laws of Illinois. He was allowed to keep the tablecloth, but the barrel was taken from him. Later he was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Harry Hoyt and released on bonds of $2,000 pending a hearing on Sept. 4. Mr. Kolb is the law partner of Ald. Dorsey Crowe of the 4th ward. They have offices in the Burnham building. So has Ald. Maypole.

Cermak's Condition Grows Worse; Temperature Rises

Anton J. Cermak, president of the county board, who is ill at St. Anthony's hospital, experienced a change for the worse in his condition last night when his temperature jumped from normal to two degrees above. Such was announced by Dr. Frank J. Jirka, Mr. Cermak's son-in-law and attending physician. When the patient was being taken to the hospital Monday night his temperature registered 104 degrees. He is suffering from influenza.

HEIFETZ ROBBED OF $15,000 GEMS AND SOUVENIRS

Narragansett Pier, R. I., Aug. 21.—(Special.)—Jacsha Heifetz, noted violinist, was robbed of jewelry worth $15,000 by a gang of burglars who have been operating here with marked success. The Heifetz collection was ransacked in the musician's absence. Police believe the thieves are members of the same band which recently stole several thousand dollars' worth of jewelry from the home of Col. Joseph Samuels, Providence department store owner.

Homes of other wealthy residents are being guarded with extra precaution and state police have been asked for assistance. The loot taken from Heifetz included many souvenirs of the musician's artistic triumphs and consequently cannot be replaced.

Head-On Street Car Crash Hurls 2, Shakes Up Scores

Two persons were injured and shaken up last night when a south bound street car fell off the rails at Coles avenue and 79th street and crashed into another car going north. Mrs. Anna Schaefer, 64 years old, 8545 Avenue H, suffered a fractured rib; John Bolka, 50 years old, 2806 East 89th street, was cut on the head.

Chicago Bound Pennsy Train is Derailed

Columbus, O., Aug. 22. (1:30 a. m.)—A Pennsylvania passenger train No. 109, Columbus to Chicago, was derailed two miles west of St. Paris, O., at about 1 o'clock this morning. Two day coaches and five Pullmans left the track. It is not definitely known whether any one was injured.

First notices of the accident were telephoned here by W. F. Fielder of Chicago, a passenger on the train, who was freed from the wreck to St. Paris to obtain aid.

HUMAN CHAIN RESCUES GIRL IN CATCH BASIN

Quick action by two neighbors yesterday saved the life of 3 year old Vivian Biehl, 2111 West Erie street, after she had fallen into a catch basin in the rear of her home.

Boys playing in the yard took the cover off the basin and the child crawled over to it and toppled in. The cries of the children brought Charles Cramer and Walter Bochenek, both of the same address. Bochenek descended into the catch basin and Cramer held him while he groped about for Vivian.

She was taken out unconscious, but was revived by her rescuers. The water in the manhole was 3 feet deep.

AIRPLANE ROUTE TO BRING LONDON DAILY MILK, EGGS

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
LONDON, Aug. 21.—An airplane milk route direct from Jersey dairy farms to London's central markets was announced tonight. The planes will carry fresh vegetables also. A service will be established between Channel Island truck farms and the Covent Garden retail markets where green stuffs, milk, butter and eggs may be on sale two hours after their arrival. The service will use Swain type planes with Napier-Lyon hydroplane engines.

Butcher Locked in Icebox While Thief Rifles Cashbox

David Pines, owner of a meat market at 516 East 56th street, refused last night to tell a robber with a revolver where he kept the key to the strong box. The bandit threatened to kill him if he did not.

FISHER HOLDS COURT IN HOME; SLASHES BOND

Suspect in Acid Case Out on Bond.

Circuit Judge Harry Fisher, in court convened at his home, 528 Belmont avenue, last night reduced from $105,000 to $10,000 the bail set last week by Municipal Judge Lyle in the case of Patsey De Rosa, identified as the leader of a gang who with acid ruined the stocks in several tailor shops whose employees were not affiliated with the Amalgamated Clothing Workers union.

Earlier in the day Judge Harry Miller and Judge Lyle were at odds over bonds and habeas corpus.

When Judge Fisher convened court at his house Attorney William A. Cunnean appeared in behalf of De Rosa. He said:

"The total bond that ordinarily would have been required of my client would be about $1,000. Yet we have him held in bonds aggregating $105,000. We are convinced that De Rosa's arrest was the result of a plant—that the evidence against him was given by a stool pigeon."

His First Arrest.
The judge then asked De Rosa if he had ever been arrested before. The answer was "No."

"Married?" queried the judge. Attorney Cunnean answered, "Yes, indeed; to a sweet little wife eight months ago."

Judge Fisher then said:

"This case shows the danger of ignoring established principles of our law just to respond to public clamor or that which purports to be public clamor."

"Under our constitution the right to give bail is one of our sacred institutions. It is a result of a long struggle. When this right is ignored it may now and then result in keeping a real criminal in custody, but if this procedure were established we would have a situation as is present here."

"We were the constitutional guarantee to bail ignored regularly we would have frequently, as in this case, a striker who has been held in jail for ten days."

How Society Is Better Off.
"Society is better off if occasionally a real criminal is allowed his liberty than that the promises of the constitution, intended to safeguard human liberty, be ignored."

"I have no fault to find with the learned judge who fixed bail in this case."

Judge Fisher then made the order reducing the bonds and added:

"The total bonds will now be $10,000, which probably will be sufficient to insure the presence of the defendant when his case is called for trial."

The shrunken bond was immediately furnished by Attorney William A. Cunnean.

Earlier yesterday Judge Lyle granted a motion for a change of venue from this court in the case of De Rosa and her co-defendants.

De Sander and his son, Isadore, both of 1146 South Western avenue, were held to the grand jury by Judge Lyle on charges of conspiracy. They were accused of intimidation of non-union shop repairers. The father's bond was fixed at $50,000 and the son's at $5,000.

Lyle Is Surprised.
When Judge Lyle was informed of the action taken by Judge Fisher he appeared surprised and said that he was not prepared to issue a statement until he had learned Judge Fisher's reasons for reducing the bonds.

"I am surprised at the action taken by Judge Fisher," said Judge Lyle, "but I am not prepared to issue a statement at this time. During the last few weeks I have been accused of using a publicity racket when I wanted to show by actions and not by words that I was trying to do what the people expected of me as a judge."

"Tomorrow afternoon, after hearing what Judge Fisher has to say, and what his reasons were for reducing this man's bonds, I will have a lengthy statement."

Keeping Criminals Off Streets.
"I can't help what other judges do after I have held a man in high bonds. I can merely try to keep these criminals off the streets, so that law-abiding citizens may be protected. Even now, I am informed, De Rosa is celebrating his freedom in a restaurant not far from Judge Fisher's home."

"Last night, the detective bureau, who arrested De Rosa, and upon whose evidence I held the man in high bonds, could explain better than I why he should be kept off the streets."

"Tomorrow six other men come before Judge Miller on a motion to have their bonds reduced. These men all

Editor Kills Bystander in Hotel Battle

East Las Vegas, N. M., Aug. 21.—(AP.)

Carl C. Magee, Albuquerque editor and storm center of New Mexico politics, tonight shot and killed John B. Lassater, a state employee, in a hotel here when, in a fight with former District Judge D. J. Leahy, his political enemy, he drew a revolver and fired. Lassater was a bystander.

Magee fired two shots after he had been knocked to the floor by Leahy, the first shot striking Lassater and the second wounding Leahy in the arm. Leahy was the district judge who tried Magee in two cases, both of which gained national publicity. Magee was taken into custody.

Pardoned by Governor.
The political feud between former Judge Leahy and Magee reached its climax in July, 1924, when a jury in Leahy's court convicted the Albuquerque editor of criminal libel in connection with publication of editorials attacking former Chief Justice J. W. Parker, of the state supreme court.

Magee was sentenced to prison by Leahy, but was pardoned by the then governor, James F. Hinkle, before he commenced his prison term.

Hailed to Court Again.
Because he criticized in other editorials Leahy's court, Judge Leahy haled Magee into his court on charges of contempt in July, 1924, and sentenced him to three months imprisonment and the editor served a day and a night in jail before Gov. Hinkle again granted him a pardon.

Magee is editor of the New Mexico State Tribune of Albuquerque. He testified before the senate committee in the Teapot Dome inquiry.

Preliminary investigation by the district attorney's office of the circumstances of the killing brought the attention of Assistant District Attorney Truitt that a charge of manslaughter would be filed against the Albuquerque editor if the coroner's jury returned a verdict against him. He was permitted to stay in a hotel tonight.

ALL'S WELL IF IT ENDS WELL—AND IT DOES
Miss Gertrude Nicholson, 2149 Farrington street, received a telephone message last night. It was to the effect that her brother, James Farragut, a building contractor with whom she lives, had been picked up by the police seriously ill at Lincoln and Lawrence avenues.

A few minutes later the police ambulance drove up to the Nicholson home and unloaded the sick man. He was taken into the house. Miss Nicholson took a look at him and hurriedly summoned a physician. Neighbors and friends of Nicholson came in, viewed him, shook their heads and muttered: "It's too bad." Miss Nicholson was all broken up about it.

The man was in a "moonshine" trance.

Just then the brother, James, walked in and wanted to know what all the racket was about. His sister took a glance at him and collapsed in a chair with "I knew Jim wouldn't get drunk."

The intoxicated man was so near a "dead ringer" for James that the sister and the neighbors all had been deceived.

The drunken man was taken away by the police. They said he had been identified when he was first picked up as Nicholson by a man who declared he knew the contractor well.

Woman, Facing Robber's Gun, Screams; Saves Gems
Undeterred by threats, blows, and a revolver, Mrs. Annette Newman, 1138 Sunnyside avenue, yesterday routed by screaming a robber who had obtained admission to her apartment by posing as a messenger. The bandit fled before the police, summoned by neighbors, arrived.

NATIONAL DRY DRIVE SEPT. 1; EWING TO STAY

'Big Business' Turns Down Jobs.

BY GENEVIEVE FORBES HERRICK.

The Rev. B. E. Ewing, appointed yesterday as acting prohibition administrator of the Illinois district, is in charge of the drinking capacities and the third—legal or illegal—of some ten million Volstead and anti-Volstead threats.

A few years ago, as a pastor of a little church in Hillsboro, O., Mr. Ewing's decisions involved the date for the annual Sunday school picnic and the choice of a text for next week's sermon. But today, as the prohibition director of the largest area in the United States, Mr. Ewing must pass upon the merits of more than 21,000 liquor permits.

Appointed by Andrews.
The appointment of Mr. Ewing was one of twenty-four made by Gen. Lincoln C. Andrews, assistant secretary of the treasury department in charge of federal prohibition enforcement.

These appointments are part of the program of Mr. Andrews to reorganize the enforcement department. It is expected that the big drive for enforcement will begin on Sept. 1, although full reorganization of the dry field forces will not be completed before Oct. 15.

In his new capacity, Mr. Ewing will have control of northern Illinois, including Chicago, southern Wisconsin, including Milwaukee, and all of Indiana.

Already on the Job.
Mr. Ewing already is on the job here, having been sent to Chicago from Washington as acting chief to replace Percy Owens, who was indicted on charges of conspiring with bootleggers.

The Rev. Mr. Ewing's proposed campaign for his area is definite in its plans.

In the first place, he pointed out: "You get the best information on how to catch a bootlegger from another bootlegger."

The layman, the reformer, the neighborhood gossip with a nose for boom, does a lot of reporting to headquarters, it seems, but often the data is vague and not substantiated.

Looks for Double Crosses.
"But when one bootlegger double crosses another, it is the same game," the ex-minister declared, "then he wants to get even. And the way he gets even is to tell the authorities about his competitor."

As a prohibition administrator Mr. Ewing realizes there are plenty of violations.

But as a former preacher, Mr. Ewing is of the opinion that things are not nearly so bad as they seem. That the prohibition law is "measurably well enforced in Chicago, considering the size of the city." And he is not at all sure but what it is the extensive use of the automobile rather than the somewhat surreptitious use of the hip flask which is responsible for the "jam age of youth."

No Change Now.
Mr. Ewing, yesterday, was a careful husbandman of any executive plans which he may have in mind. His present appointment, he pointed out, is only temporary, pending a permanent appointment in September. Consequently there is to be no radical changes in his office for the present.

His only announcement was relative to the manner in which the territory will be divided in the future. Five deputy administrators, an assistant administrator to take care of permits, another assistant to take care of enforcement, and an attorney with several assistants, will soon be appointed, he stated.

Sends Out Deputies.
Of the five deputies, one each will be assigned to Milwaukee, Springfield, and Indianapolis. The remaining two will aid in the general enforcement of the liquor laws in Chicago.

And the quintet, Mr. Ewing predicted, purpose to go about their business with more disastrous results to the violators, than ever came to anti-prohibitionists in the pre-Volstead days in Hillsboro, O.

COULDN'T ENLIST BIG BUSINESS.
Washington, D. C., Aug. 21.—(Special.)—Gen. Lincoln C. Andrews, in reorganizing the prohibition enforcement forces, encountered difficulty in enlisting big business to put "big business men" and ex-army officers in charge of the job of drying up the nation. This is shown by the fact that only five names new to prohibition enforcement appear on the list of 34 district administrators, announced today.

The other agencies have had other as state and divisional chiefs or other posts under the old régime. Some—such as the Rev. Mr. Ewing—are known definitely in anti-saloon and anti-prohibition circles as "Haynes men," while others are those whose jobs politicians sought to save in protecting the new district boundary lines.

Gen. Andrews has not given up hope, however, of yet inducing some so-called "450,000 a year" men to accept jobs as administrators in the "key" cities, and with this end in view has designated seven of the new appointees as only acting administrators.

Seven Acting Administrators.
In addition to the Rev. Mr. Ewing, the following acting administrators were named: R. R. Kane, Boston; J. A. Foster, New York; R. Q. Merrick, Buffalo; W. D. Moss, St. Louis; Capt. C. C. Townsend, St. Paul, and Capt. C. P. Cribbe, Houston.

The only business man appointed in the lot is Frederick Baird, a railroad executive recommended by H. H. Gary of the United States steel corporation.

Mr. Baird, who became administrator at Pittsburgh, was formerly general traffic manager of the Bessemer and Lake Erie railroad.

Four of the new administrators are ex-army officers: A. J. Hanlon, San Juan, Porto Rico; Robert E. Frith, Los Angeles; Herbert H. White, Fort Worth, Tex.; and Col. Halsey Dunwoody, Tampa, Fla.

Was M. P. in France.
A fifth ex-army officer, Walton A. Green of New York, is named as chief prohibition investigator, a job similar to that held by C. C. Teller, chief of general agents, who became administrator at his old stamping grounds, San Francisco.

Major Green helped Gen. Andrews organize the military police overseas during the war.

The wets are said to be rejoicing over the appointment of Edmund Budnitz formerly state director of Maryland, as administrator at Baltimore. Budnitz was opposed by the Ku Klux Klan and was charged with various offenses by the Anti-Saloon league, which, however, backed down on its accusations when Budnitz filed suit against it for $25,000, alleging libel.

The other old prohibition chiefs who became administrators are William G. Murdock, Philadelphia; B. C. Sharpe, Charlotte, N. C.; O. D. Jackson, New Orleans; Sam Collins, Louisville; E. L. Yortfield, Columbus; A. W. McCampbell, Omaha; John F. Vivian, Denver; Elias Masters, Helena, Mont.; Roy C. Lyke, Seattle, and R. A. Pulver, Roanoke, Va.

Learned to Government.
Gen. Andrews said tonight that Baird was the only man recommended by the "Committee of 1,000" headed by Mr. Gary who had accepted.

Mr. Baird has been loaned to the government for a year and will not be dependent on his salary of $4,000 as an administrator. He was paid $10,000 while Controller General McCall had ruled that a salary as high as $7,500 might be paid by the administrators, he was unable to go above $6,000 for the reason that no one in the bureau of internal revenue, under which prohibition enforcement comes, gets more than that amount.

$10,000 IN RARE STAMPS LOOT OF THIEF-COLLECTOR

A tall, stout young chap with the sensitive features of an art connoisseur, who carried a light tan satchel and wore a heavy brown overcoat and dark lensed glasses, was sought last night as the perpetrator of what Capt. John Stages of the detective bureau termed the most unique robbery in his experience.

For within his cheap looking satchel the young man carried upward of $10,000 worth of rare postage stamps of princely and civilized nations on the globe. He had obtained them by overpowering, blinding, and gagging Benjamin F. Kinslow, head of the Colonial Stamp company, 118 South Dearborn street.

Also sought as a possible accomplice of the robber was a fat, squat young fellow with a dark complexion and a huge nose. The pair were seen together loitering about the corridors of the Westminster building shortly before the tall robber entered Kinslow's office on the eleventh floor.

The loot, consisting mostly of stamps of the United States and of British possessions, could only be disposed of through the comparatively few dealers scattered about the country, according to Kinslow.

FINE BIDDLE $500 FOR AUTO CRASH INJURING TWO

Newport, R. I., Aug. 21. (AP)—George Drexel Biddle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Biddle of Philadelphia, was fined $500 and ordered to pay three charges growing out of an automobile accident on July 8, when the car he was driving struck a machine owned by Morton A. Weaver, injuring the driver and a woman companion.

Biddle also faced two suits, one for $10,000 by Mrs. Mary Collins of Pawtucket, and the other for $5,000 by Weaver.

The maximum fine was imposed by Judge Levy, on each warrant. The first was for $200 for driving while intoxicated; the second for reckless driving; and the third for $100 for operating without a license.

FOUR MORE DIE OF SHIP BLAST; TOLL NOW IS 46

Newport, R. I., Aug. 21. (AP)—The death of Edward Donovan of Pawtucket tonight brought to forty-six the total of deaths resulting from the explosion of a boiler on the excursion steamer Mackinac Tuesday evening.

Seize Two Rug Dealers on Charge of Faking Burglary

Accused of staging a fake burglary of $15,000 worth of rugs on Aug. 4, Hal G. Cartosian and his son, Barton, owners of a rug store at 1418 Sherman avenue, Evanston, were booked yesterday on charges of conspiracy to defraud the Fidelity and Casualty Insurance company of New York by making claims for indemnity.

Hillsboro, Dot on Ohio Map, Gives Chicago Its Dry Chiefs

Hillsboro yesterday gained a lap on Westerville in the race for prohibition capital of the United States. Hillsboro, west of control of northern Illinois, Indiana, and southern Wisconsin, including Milwaukee, when Gen. Lincoln C. Andrews announced that the Rev. B. E. Ewing, former pastor of the United Brethren church of that village, would continue as administrator for the Illinois district.

But Illinois contains neither of the villages in the race. Hillsboro, which boasts of 4,355 inhabitants, is the county seat of Highland, in southern Ohio. Its rival, Westerville, is in Franklin county, in central Ohio, and holds about half as many people—2,150, according to the 1910 census.

Westerville long had the lead through its possession of the headquarters of the anti-saloon league of America. Then appeared Roy Lister, prohibition commissioner. He was from Hillsboro and since that time that town has been in the middle.

The peculiar situation in which two villages—little known to the public in general—have struggled for leadership in the moral uplift of America, is the result of a race back many years. It was in 1873 that the women of Hillsboro decided to close up the saloons of that town. The Rev. William McCurely then went to each saloon in the village and prayed before it. For days they sat up until one of the liquor dealers submitted, closed up their shops and quit.

It was known as the woman's crusade. It spread from one town to another until all southern Ohio was affected. The movement resulted eventually in the formation of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, which grew until its branches covered the nation and eventually the world.

Later the Anti-Saloon league was organized to bring business methods into the dry struggle. Its headquarters were established at Westerville and that village became the gathering center of the dry force of the nation.

But down in Hillsboro Mr. Haynes was conducting and editing a county seat paper. Early in 1920 he began a native son cry of Warren G. Harding for President. Some say he was the original Harding for President man.

After the Harding administration went into office, Mr. Haynes was taken from the Ohio hills to become first commissioner under the provisions of the Volstead act. His salary of $7,500 a year was a matter of much comment in Hillsboro.

Since Mr. Haynes went into office, a comparative large number of Hillsboro persons also have gone into office on jobs in the dry enforcement work. Mr. Ewing was among the first. He left the ministry of his church—not the

COLLINS SHAKES 20 MEN OUT OF SINGLE STATION FISHBURN ESTATE

Starts on North Side to Revise Force.
Orders transferring more than 20 sergeants, plain clothes policemen, and at least two lieutenants from the Summerdale police station to widely scattered districts, will become effective Monday morning, it was announced last night by Chief of Police Collins.

Similar shakeups in practically every district in the city speedily will follow, weeding out inactive policemen and breaking up cliques suspected of protecting law violators in their precinct, the chief asserted.

Chief Threatens Cleanup.
Picked men, capable of coping with peculiar conditions in the district will be sent to Summerdale and a cleanup of the territory may be expected immediately, the chief continued. The transfer is delayed only because of the chief's hesitancy at making the shift in mid of the Upworn Chicago summer, it was said.

With the posting of a captain's eligibility list in a few days, from which at least 15 new commanders will be chosen at once, the police department will experience a big shakeup, the chief has predicted. Several veteran captains probably will be retired, others transferred to less important posts, and many acting captains demoted to lieutenancies.

To Shake Up Whole Station.
In some districts practically the entire station personnel will be hit by the transfer orders, it is known, while in others only the plain clothes details will be affected. Police men now working in plain clothes in most of the districts will be assigned to wear uniforms and man the new roadster automobiles, it is expected.

The Summerdale district has become one of the most important in the city, the chief declared. "Broadway, Clark street and Sheridan are working in plain clothes in most of the districts and the trend of everything is north. A high degree of police efficiency is required in the growing territory and we are anticipating the development by the infusion of new blood into the Summerdale station."

Of auto squad members who object to reporting by telephone to their district headquarters at least every twenty minutes, the chief said: "When assistance from the police is needed, it usually is needed at once. When men actually are engaged on a case, of course, they do not report frequently as per fixed schedule, but when they are simply touring their districts, surely it would be an insane idea not to hear from them as often as possible."

"I sympathize with the complainants because every twenty minutes they must get out of a soft seat in an automobile, pick up a telephone receiver and say 'Hello.'"

Poland Sentences 3 Reds to Death Despite Threats
WARSAW, Poland, Aug. 21. (AP)—Death sentences were pronounced today against three alleged communists captured in one of Warsaw's busiest streets on July 17 after a gun fight with detectives and subsequent chase in which a score of persons were wounded, several fatally. The sentences were passed in the face of the receipt by Premier Orski of threatening telegrams from French and German communist groups.

SURPLUS SHOWN BY ITALY ON EVE OF DEBT FUNDING

May Affect Terms to Be Asked of America.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
ROME, Aug. 21.—While Italy is preparing to demand favored terms in the funding of its debt to the United States on a plea of poverty, the Official Gazette reports a treasury surplus of 71,000,000 lire (roughly $13,500,000), where last year's deficit was $3,000,000 ($3,000,000). The total circulation is 21,750,000,000 lire ($754,000,000), which is an increase of 259,000,000 lire ($9,200,000) over last year. The increase is explained as being due to the great industrial development.

The drop of the lira is shown to be due to an increase in the unfavorable trade balance as exports for the first six months of the fiscal year amounted to $5,659,000,000 lire ($206,000,000), which is an increase of 1,892,000,000 lire ($64,000,000) over the same period of last year.

The imports were 14,427,000,000 lire ($515,200,000), which is an increase of 4,900,000,000 lire ($143,000,000). ($143,000,000). have lengthy police records for burglary and robbery, and one is even a murderer, so I felt that I was more than justified in holding them in high bonds, and I am going to continue doing so."

MILLER-LYLE IN CLASH
Judge Harry B. Miller of the Criminal court issued writs of habeas corpus last yesterday in behalf of six men described by Capt. John Stages of the detective bureau as "kingpins of the beer industry." All had been given severe sentences early in the day by Judge Lyle.

The men are Joe Solis, one time pal of Frank McElrath; Frank Knapp, Jacob Geis, Frank Konec, Richard Stepan and Charles Jahl. They were arrested while the police were searching for "Teddy" Webb, killer, who escaped from the Joliet honor farm several weeks ago.

Paid to Get Prisoners.
When the writs were turned over to the Municipal court bailiff's office, five deputies were sent to the Maxwell street station to take charge of the prisoners. They didn't get them. The police stated that they had orders from Judge Lyle to hold them and they would be held until 10 a. m. today, when Judge Lyle will be on the bench and ready to look at the writs to see that they are correct.

Attorney James M. Burke, in his petition for the writs, set forth that Judge Lyle, before passing sentence of the six, denied a request for jury trials.

Included in the evidence submitted by the police were photographs of the five until they were little larger than pistols, dynamite, moonshine, whiskey, beer and alcohol, all said to have been found in Solis' wood yard at 2135 West 61st street.

Solis was fined $500 and sentenced to sixty days in the house of correction for possession of the dynamite. The other five were fined $300 each for having the revolvers.

John Solis, a brother of Joe, and his partner, Steve Schultz, were arraigned before Judge Lyle on charges of violating the prohibition laws and were held to the grand jury in bonds of $50,000 each.

PERSHING MAKES CHILEANS STOP VIOLENCE TO PERU
ARICA, Chile, Aug. 21. (AP)—Gen. John J. Pershing, president of the Tacna-Arica plebiscitary commission, intervened today in the hostility between the Chileans and Peruvians.

A Chilean crowd gathered this morning to try to prevent the sale of a newspaper published and distributed by the Peruvian delegation to the commission on the streets of Arica. The frightened sellers ran into the doorway of Gen. Pershing's residence, where three members of the American delegation intervened. Gen. Pershing immediately visited Agustín Edwards, head of the Chilean delegation, and afterward announced that the Peruvians "will have a perfect right to sell papers or to go anywhere in the city."

The Chilean hostility to the paper, which is published aboard the Peruvian transport Ucayali, has increased lately since it first appeared on Aug. 19. In the presence of Raymond C. Cox, William C. Dennis and Maj. John G. Quisenberry, of the American delegation, Peruvians were thrown today at the Peruvians. When the crowd had dispersed the Peruvians returned into the center of the city to continue selling their papers.

Kill Bank Messenger in Taxi, Grab $14,000 Pay Roll
New York, Aug. 21. (Special)—Three thugs waylaid a taxicab in which Joseph Gallagher, a special messenger for the Perth Amboy (N. J.) Trust company, was riding with a pay roll of $14,000 for a firm of contractors this afternoon. Three bullet holes into Gallagher's body, grabbed the money, and escaped. Gallagher was killed.

NEW ASSOCIATES HAIL MASON ON MIDWAY CAMPUS

The University of Chicago, its faculty, its trustees and its summer students yesterday formally met its new president, Dr. Max Mason from Wisconsin.

Dr. Mason during his visit will be the guest of Harold Swift, chairman of the board of trustees. Dr. Mason did not say just when his visit will terminate, but said it would end soon as he wishes to go into the north woods.

Looking over the campus Dr. Mason was particularly impressed, he said, with the building activities.

"It is inspiring to see work going forward on new buildings such as the new school of medicine, the new biology building, and the Joseph Bond chapel of the divinity school," he said.

While he talked the new president about the campus, meeting members of the faculty, shaking hands with summer students who recognized him from his picture in the newspapers, and constantly admiring the grounds and buildings.

"I am more than ever impressed," he said, "with the beauty of the quadrangles, with the situation of the university on one of Chicago's finest boulevards and with the opportunity already partly realized to create an incomparable vista of academic beauty on this spot."

STRANGER PLAYS REVOLVER; WINS $200 AT BOOKIE'S

Loop Chase Follows and Robber Gets Away.

Just as the sixth race at Hawthorne was being run yesterday, a lone hold-up man walked up to the door of room 120 at 120 South Clark street. His revolver was concealed and he held up the hand, which is the high sign of a man who wants to make bets on the horses.

The doorman heeded the signal and opened the door. Without delay the stranger presented his revolver and demanded the money.

"No monkey business. You see this, mister?" replied the doorman. "I have a gun."

The stranger entered the room. The doorman of the place was looking at the chart and hoping, as usual, for a big score. The manager was busy figuring out the odds on one of Chicago's finest boulevards and with the opportunity already partly realized to create an incomparable vista of academic beauty on this spot.

TWO "MOTHERS" WANT HER

GIRL IS KIDNAPED BY MOTHER AFTER LEGAL ADOPTION

Neither Claimant Wins
in Court.

Kidnaped by her own mother from a woman who had legally adopted her, Darlene Mae Smith, 5, toddled playfully around the Grand crossing court yesterday while her two "mothers" fought for her possession.

The fight, it turned out, was physical as well as legal. After Judge James O'Toole had ruled that a mother could not be punished for stealing her own child, each woman made a rush for the little girl. Bailiffs separated them. The judge then decided that she belonged to neither of the two and now Darlene is in the juvenile detention home with no mother at all.

Deserted by Husband.
The baby was born in the Chicago Lying-In hospital, it was alleged, the mother, Mrs. James Dalton Smith, 572 1/2 Wrightwood avenue, was married. The husband left her a few days later and the young mother was taken care of by her cousin, Mrs. Margaret Lilly.

For two years the women mothered the baby, then Mrs. Lilly moved to Elmhurst, O. For a time the little girl was sent back and forth, staying with each for a few months in turn. Three years ago on one of these trips, Mrs. Lilly didn't send her back, and the mother did not object until last June when she went to Elmhurst and found her cousin and the baby gone.

Charged With Kidnaping.
Accompanied by her brother, Henry Smith, 4604 Lake Park avenue, the mother went to the Riley home, found the little girl playing in the front yard, picked her up, and took her with them. Then, suddenly, a week ago, they found themselves under arrest on a charge of kidnaping. Then, for the first time, the mother learned that her cousin had adopted the child.

When the Smiths came to trial yesterday, Judge O'Toole held that they were not guilty of the kidnaping charge.

BOB DISPLEASES TIRED GIRL; SHE DIES IN CANAL

Rose Fallen Was Ill,
Mother Explains.

Exhausted from a hot summer's work in a laundry, and brooding over her shingle bob which she fancied was unbecoming, seventeen year old Rose Fallen, too ill to work, and not fit enough to be in bed, disappeared from her parents' cottage at Oakton road and the brickyard, Evanston, Tuesday night and quietly made good her somewhat hysterical threat to "jump in the canal."

Yesterday morning Rose's body was pulled out of the drainage canal at Argyle street.

Clothes Reveal Identity.
Sergeant McAvoy and Patrolmen Healey and Jones of Summerdale station, who brought the body over to David Edgar's morgue at 4815 North Robey street, noticed the girl's chestnut hair, with its closely cropped shingle. They recalled, too, that the missing girl had disappeared while wearing a yellow silk awneter, blue serge skirt, brown oxford, and black stockings. The pile of water-soaked garments in the undertaking rooms answered that description.

So the police telephoned to Mrs. Amelia Fallon to come to the morgue. She spied the clothes, looked at the face, burst into sobs, and nodded her head.

Tired All Through Summer.
Later, in a calmer mood, Mrs. Fallon explained that it wasn't entirely the worry over the shingle bob that had driven her daughter to commit suicide. "All this summer she was so tired. She worked at a laundry and it was too hot there. In June she took a job in the laundry at the Orrington hotel. She fainted the first day and had to come home. Since then she hasn't worked. She never went out to parties, even when before she became ill. The last few weeks she has fainted often. Then she worried so over her hair. She used to say she'd jump in the lake, but I never believed she would. I never believed she would."

TRIBE OF MOORS SACRIFICES FIVE BULLS TO PEACE

Surrender to the French with Solemnity.

FEZ, French Morocco, Aug. 21.—(U. P.)—Five bulls were hamstringed and killed before Gen. Simon and his staff as a mark of surrender of 300 men, women, and children of the Oulias tribe to the French army.

Submission of Moroccan tribes usually is accompanied by flamboyant ceremony and fantastic native rites. The Oulias, an important faction of the large Toul tribe, arrived at the French post at Oued Amellil, accompanied by their families and led by a venerable white bearded chief. They had had a long, tedious journey. Their faces were covered with perspiration, but their discomfort did not prevent the solemnity of the occasion being observed.

Pray Before French General.
The chief explained the Oulias loved France because the French had rescued Morocco from anarchy and had given them peace and prosperity. He bowed low before Gen. Simon and asked the benedictions of Allah to descend on him. Then the chief's family knelt on their carpets and prayed. Others followed them to their knees.

With his face in the dust, the chief spoke as follows:
"For us the bull is the symbol of strength and courage. In order to prove to you that we consider ourselves vanquished we will sacrifice five bulls in your presence tomorrow, cutting the muscles of their legs before killing them."
"You are stronger than we. We have our leg muscles cut, our hands cut, but we know your kindness. You won't kill us, won't sacrifice us to your vengeance. France is not vengeful. Peace be with thee."

Then, with one gesture, the men threw their rifles and cartridges to the ground and departed, majestically draped in their white cloaks, while the women and children continued to lament.

Each family was fined 100 francs.

Ready for Big Offensive.
FEZ, Aug. 21.—(U. P.)—Preparations for a general offensive against the Moorish tribesmen have been completed. The staff of Gen. Naulin, the French commander in chief, working with remarkable rapidity, has got all the troops into the positions in the line assigned to them.

Meanwhile cleaning up operations by the French continue. The columns operating on the western section of the battlefield have advanced a considerable distance, meeting with slight resistance. They have occupied the southern and western slopes of Ghebel Guebbi, the highest point of which is 3,000 feet above sea level. In the center a French column has reached the valley of Oued el-Hammar, and on the east front another column has occupied the southern part of the Tander range without opposition.

The French troops occupy the whole line of advanced posts in the Tander region, where Gen. Belouch has completely encircled the Toul country. It is said the entire Toul tribe will offer submission to the French.

The French are continuing their drive against the Moors. They now hold all of the Oued-Leben valley and have the Rifians pushed beyond the line of fortifications. Numerous villages are surrendering. The shaded area on the map shows the extent of the drive.

HIGH COURT UPHOLDS FIVE YEAR SENTENCE OF VICTOR H. ARNOLD

Federal Judges Alschuler, Evans, and Page, sitting en banc in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, yesterday affirmed the sentence of Victor H. Arnold, former Chicago "business man" and later banker-evangelist-em-bealer of Madison, Wis.

Under the terms of the decision Arnold must begin the serving of five years in the federal penitentiary for swindling small stockholders out of more than $1,000,000 through his operation of the Madison Bond company. Arnold was sentenced on specific charges of using the mails in a scheme to defraud. Yesterday's ruling climaxed a three years' court fight which began when he was arrested in his newly established country estate on Long Island, N. Y., in 1923.

At the time of his arrest Arnold said that he "had been persecuted because he tried to introduce the methods of Christ into business." Throughout his trial he stressed the claim that much of the embezzled money had been spent to relieve the poor.

Seek Boy's Body in Lake; Fell In, Pals Tell Police

Search for the body of David Mangos, 13, of 28 East 23d street, was started last night after two boys with whom he left home in the afternoon testified and reported that he had fallen into the lake at 23d street. The other boys, Earl Summerville and Abe Levine, both of 2154 South Wabash avenue, said they had tried to save him.

PLAN FOR JOLIET WATERWAY LINK NEARS APPROVAL

Contract Is Due to Be Let in Short Time.

BY PARKE BROWN.
Within a short time everything will be ready for the letting of the contract for one of the biggest and most important sections of Illinois' part of the lake-gulf waterway.

This section is the one passing through Joliet. The Illinois flows through there, but for the purpose of the waterway, retaining walls must be built, the channel must be widened into a big turning basin, and the way opened for the construction of the important dam, lock, and power plant at Brandon road.

Plans Already Completed.
Plans and specifications for this work have been completed by the division of waterways, now a part of the new state department of public works and construction, which, at least temporarily, is headed by Leslie Small, son of Gov. Small, who appointed him to the post last month.

When the mass of blue prints and figures have been approved by Director Small they will be submitted, in conformity with the law, to the city council of Joliet. Informally that municipality already has approved the design and it is possible that the formal action will be taken Monday night.

The contract will cover about two miles of the river, extending from Ruby street to the Brandon road bridge. The cost will be approximately $2,000,000, it is estimated.

Retaining Walls Are Main Task.

The biggest part of the work will be the construction of the retaining walls for the channel. These will be fifteen feet in height at the upper end of the section, rising to forty feet at the lower end, where they will join the walls of the dam and the lock.

The big basin at the lower end is regarded as of great value. Its area will be large enough to be an assembling point for the fleets of lighters and barges that are expected in three or four years to be starting down stream for the gulf.

3 POLICEMEN ARE DISCHARGED FOR NEGLECT OF DUTY

Policemen Christ Sloter of the West Chicago avenue station, Richard St. Germain of the Brighton Park station and Bernard Love of the Stanton avenue station were ordered discharged from the police commission yesterday. The three policemen were found guilty of neglect of duty, when posted as guards over a robbery cache at 3514 West Van Buren street, on Monday night, and fled with $16,704, was seized yesterday in St. Paul, Minn. Local detectives will leave today to bring him back.

Walter Scholtens, a pal of Teddy Webb, police killer, who recently escaped from the penitentiary, and two of his pals were arrested a month ago, Sidney Rose, a former teller at the bank, confessed that he had plotted with Chisler to rob the bank. It was largely through the detective work of A. D. Whitney, vice president of the bank, that Chisler was apprehended. Whitney and two bank employees had identified Scholtens.

UPTOWN PARADE CROWD 350,000; ARTILLERY LEADS

Miss Helen Allee Is Crowned Queen.

The executive committee of the Uptown Pageant, in celebration of the opening of the Balaban & Kats Uptown theater last night, estimated approximately 350,000 people lined the sidewalks of the streets traversed by the pageant's parade down Broadway to Argyle to Sheridan road and then south to Montrose avenue.

Huge army search lights mounted on automobile trucks were trained on the paraders as they passed in review near Broadway and Lawrence avenue. The powerful glare of the army light revealed the many colorful trimmings that clothed the various floats.

202d Artillery Leads.
Col. Charles Kraft of the 202d field artillery led the parade. The 202d field artillery band came next, followed by several batteries of artillery and boy scouts.

Following the soldiers came the various floats entered on a competitive basis by uptown business men. The first prize of $100 in the float entries was awarded to the Contra cafeteria. Second prize of $50 was awarded to the Loren Miller company. The third prize of $25 was awarded to the Sheridan Trust and Savings Bank.

Miss Helen Allee Crowned.
Miss Helen Allee was crowned queen of the pageant. She will represent the Uptown business men at the Illinois Products exposition.

For several hours yesterday the officers of the north side pageant were not sure that they could stage last night's parade. They were notified by James Petrie, president of the Chicago Federation of Musicians, that he objected to Frank Sturtevant and his military band being in the line of march. Petrie, it is said, threatened to "pull" his musicians at the new Uptown theater and at the Arcadia unless Sturtevant and the artillery band were withdrawn. Without the band, the officers of the pageant argued, the soldiers of the 202d artillery could not march. It was close to 4 o'clock yesterday that Petrie was forced to withdraw his ultimatum.

MISSING ROBBER OF BRYN MAWR BANK CAPTURED

Mario Chisler, alias Jack Davis, missing member of the four robbers who held up the Bryn Mawr State bank, 2118 East 71st street, on Monday night, and fled with $16,704, was seized yesterday in St. Paul, Minn. Local detectives will leave today to bring him back.

Walter Scholtens, a pal of Teddy Webb, police killer, who recently escaped from the penitentiary, and two of his pals were arrested a month ago, Sidney Rose, a former teller at the bank, confessed that he had plotted with Chisler to rob the bank. CHINESE JEER AT BRITISH AS THEY RESUME JAP JOBS

Strike Against Ships and Mills of Nippon.

BY JOHN POWELL.
(Chicago Tribune Staff Writer.)
HONGKONG, Aug. 21.—Several thousand Chinese returned to work on the docks today in a most spectacular manner. Parading in steam launch and firecrackers, they called along the waterfront the tied up British shipping and jeered at the Japanese ships, which they began loading cargoes. Several thousand Chinese laborers returned to work today at Japanese mills, but mills using munitions power were unable to operate because of the refusal of the British to start the power house to work until the Chinese resume employment in the industries.

Workers in cigar factories of the British-American tobacco company returned to work today after a resumption of work. There is no indication of a settlement of the strike against the British. The Chinese seem to be determined to continue the strike until they have secured the demands resulting from Shanghai last May before ending the strike.

Pressure on British Government.
(Chicago Tribune Staff Writer.)
LONDON, Aug. 21.—The Tribune reports that strong pressure is being brought upon the British government to allow the Chinese situation in China to be regarded as a domestic matter. The British government is determined to assure itself that the new regulations are authentic before making any move.

Canada Urges Action.
(Chicago Tribune Staff Writer.)
CANBERRA, B. C., Aug. 21.—(AP) The Chinese boycott of British goods in British ships constitutes a menace to Canadian trade with the Orient through this port, business men here believe, and the merchants' exchange has been urged to pressure the British government to the "inevitable" very serious result to Canadian export trade and shipping. The merchants also ask all Chinese business houses meeting Canadian goods through Vancouver are demanding that Canadian labels and all indications of British origin be removed from the goods and that the products be shipped in United States vessels.

Chief of Canton Fleet.
(Chicago Tribune Staff Writer.)
CANTON, China, Aug. 21.—(AP) One of the men who participated in the demonstration yesterday at the Chinese government, was killed by a bullet while fleeing from the scene, a number of sources here said. The remainder of the demonstration was a leader of the Chinese workers and was regarded as a demonstration of the present anti-Chinese attitude. At one time he was governor of Kwangtung province. He was known as a violent hater of foreigners.

Central States Fair Opens With Prosperity Hint
(Chicago Tribune Staff Writer.)
MILWAUKEE, Ill., Aug. 21.—(Special.)—The opening of the prosperity now underway and in prospect for agriculture was today as the Central States Fair opened a nine day program at Exposition park. Every building was filled with the throngs of people and the armies of carpenters and electricians had to be summoned to the plant of the fair to make additions to pavilions and throw across tents for late arriving exhibitors.

The show as a whole is the biggest in the Central States ever held and, in the biggest outdoor show in the country, officers of the fair say, a 10-mile automobile race is the main attraction of shorter races Saturday with most.

Several spectacles called "Rome in the Park," in which more than 100 men and hundreds of dancing girls will take part, is to start Sunday afternoon a rodeo, in which the champion men and girl riders of the plains will compete, will start a week's run.

COOLIDGE HINTS HE'S NOT AVERSE TO A THIRD TERM

Makes Public Letter
By GUY MCKINNEY.

(Chicago Tribune Staff Writer.)
SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., Aug. 21.—(Special.)—That President Coolidge does not altogether disapprove of the idea of running for the presidency again was indicated today by his response, through the executive offices, of correspondence exchanged with a Vermont farmer who cast his first vote for Lincoln and now wants to cast another vote for Mr. Coolidge.

The letter to the President was written by William A. Aiken, who styles himself a "Green Mountain boy" born in 1823. See Hint in Selection.

In his reply, the President did not mention the talk of "another term," but neither does he give any reason for having selected this particular letter for issuance out of the hundreds which come to his office weekly. The subject of another term has been mentioned by many White House callers this summer, notable among them being David Milvane, Republican national committeeman from Kansas.

In his letter Mr. Aiken stated that during Lincoln's presidency the writer held eight interesting interviews with him as military representative of the then "war governor" of Connecticut, the Hon. William A. Buckingham.

Peace Busy Week-End.
After a week spent at Plymouth and Northampton, President Coolidge returned today to the White House late today. Tomorrow he faces what will probably be his busiest week-end of the summer. Postmaster General Harry S. New will arrive early to take up departmental matters and discuss with the President the results of the new postal law passed by the last congress. There are six other callers, including Senator James W. Wadsworth Jr. (Rep., N. Y.), chairman of the senate committee on military affairs.

Engineer Near Death After Injury in Boiler Explosion
Charles D. Lee, 42, of 426 South California avenue, a stationary engineer, was perhaps fatally injured yesterday when a huge boiler attached to an electrolyzing machine exploded at the plant of the Balke Manufacturing company, 2952 West Van Buren street.

U. S. S. ILLINOIS TO BE RENTED FOR $225 A NIGHT

New York, Aug. 21.—(Special.)—The United States battleship Illinois, scrapped under the disarmament treaty and converted into a training ship for the 1st battalion, New York Naval militia, will be rented at $225 a night, it was learned today, when printed circulars inviting inspection were received by clubs, societies, and business firms.

The circular states the former first line battleship "is available for rental for social affairs, dances, business meetings, shows, and conventions throughout the year."

The Illinois was launched Dec. 19, 1893, and was commissioned six months later. While flagship of the European squadron in 1906, Rear Admiral "Fighting Bob" Evans commanded the Illinois on his cruise around the world. Later the battleship was active at Tampico and Vera Cruz during the trouble with Mexico.

GEM RABBITS JOIN TO GUARD AGAINST BANDITS
Forced by the many recent gem robberies into a further community of interest, tenants of the Hayworth building, 24 East Madison street, which is almost exclusively devoted to the jewelry trade, have formed the Hayworth Protective association, and taken steps to prevent more robberies.

Special policemen have been placed around the building and an intricate system of special burglar and robbery alarms, connecting with the police, has been installed. It is hoped to make the building thoroughly burglar and holdup proof.

Police investigating the robbery Thursday of $50,000 worth of goods from S. Lazarus & Sons, 200 South Peoria street, yesterday examined 20 suspects, who will probably be released today. The loss was covered by insurance.

4 GIRLS VANISH WITHOUT TRACE; MORONS FEARED

The recent disappearance of four girls was reported yesterday, and with out clues to indicate where they had gone, police expressed the fear that they may have fallen into the hands of panderers and degenerates, against whom Chief Collins issued a warning some days ago.

Hattie Knack, a brown eyed, brown haired, 16 year old girl left her home, 2404 South Spaulding avenue, a week ago after a quarrel over dishwashing. Cynthia Lawrence, 17 year old stenographer, had lunch yesterday with her sister, Nora, and started back to work at Franklin McVeigh and company, wholesale grocers, 338 West Lake street. She did not appear there.

Monday night, Mrs. Anna Lyle went downtown from her home 920 Windsor avenue, to attend a theater. She had not returned last night. William, her husband, informed the police. Lucille Smith, 16 years old, started out from her home, 2120 Wall street, Thursday, to seek work. She has not been heard from since.

Stanley Rickowski, 20, 6344 Hyacinth avenue, was held to the grand jury yesterday in Boys' court, charged with an attempted assault on Mrs. Erick Eckman in her home, 6128 Hyacinth avenue. His brother Edward, who broke into Mrs. Eckman's home on another occasion, was held for disorderly conduct.

Lose Hope for 3 Flyers, but Continue Searching
Although only slight hope remains that three Chicago flyers missing since July 27 are still alive, the search for them will continue until the mystery of their disappearance is solved, their relatives announced last night. A tug boat, dragging the lake north Gary for the wreck of a plane said to have been sighted there, returned unsuccessful last night. It will be sent out again today.

CRY OF SIBERIAN EXILES REACHES JEWRY OF WORLD

Dark Prisons of Bolshevik Russia Speak.

BY JOHN CLAYTON.
(Chicago Tribune Staff Writer.)
VIENNA, Aug. 21.—The severest criticism that bolshevik Russia has yet received from the lips of a Jewish organization was contained in a telegram from the Young Zionists of Russia, which was read to the Zionist congress today.

"We protest the congress from the darkness of the prisons of Russia and the icefields of Siberia, with the heaviest disappointment in our hearts concerning soviet Russia's treatment of equality and liberty," the telegram read. "It is a satire on our fate that in a decisive moment for Jewry the strongest element, the Russian Jews, are shut out from the greater part of the deliberations."

The Russian Jews who nourished Zionism, who never lost faith in the salvation of Israel are almost completely absent because under present bolshevik conditions they are without means of cooperating. The Zionist movement has been maliciously destroyed in Russia and the Zionists have been imprisoned or exiled to Siberia.

The telegram made a profound impression on the congress, for the communist element has been making itself felt here much stronger than in former congresses.

Attacks on England.
Heavy attacks against "British misuse of mandate rights" featured today's session. Except for the American and British delegates, the opposition to England made itself felt all along the line.

Perhaps the mildest criticism came from the forehead of Zionism, Jabotinsky, who never lost faith in the salvation of Israel are almost completely absent because under present bolshevik conditions they are without means of cooperating. The Zionist movement has been maliciously destroyed in Russia and the Zionists have been imprisoned or exiled to Siberia.

Despite the anti-English tone of the congress, it appears tonight that Rabbi Weissmann will have a small majority for the pro-English policies of the executive committee. Nineteen of thirty-five votes are already in his pocket, while the opposition is divided on important measures. Rabbi Goldberg of New York, the American delegate, was chosen president of the permanent committee.

Tomorrow, being the Jewish Sabbath, there will be no session of the congress, but extensive police preparations are being made to keep the "German day" from the state's attention. The police have forbidden communist demonstrations which the party leaders had called to follow the Zionist demonstrations, but the Reds threaten to hold a mass meeting tomorrow night despite the police ban. Serious trouble may be expected, if the Reds make good their threats, for the police will not handle the communists as easily as they did Fascist demonstrators the day before yesterday.

HANDS OF DEATH

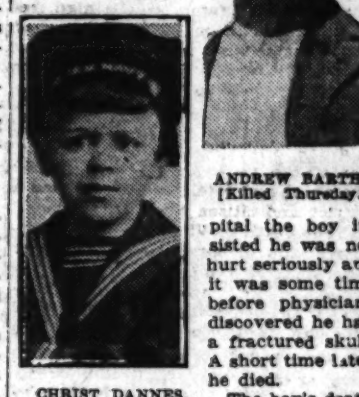

The hands of the clock indicate the number of deaths by autos, guns, and moonshine, in Cook county since Jan. 1. Yesterday was the two hundred and thirty-third day of 1925.

DEATH OF BOY HURT BY AUTO LAID TO PLUCK

County's Motor Toll Mounts to 465.

Courage of 9 year old Christ Dannes, 2546 Wentworth avenue, probably cost his life yesterday. The boy was knocked down as he was crossing the street near his home by a taxi cab driven by Fred Worst, 6126 South May street. At St. Luke's hospital the boy died.

CHRIST DANNES.
[Killed Thursday.]
The boy's death raised the Cook county motor death toll to 465 since Jan. 1.

Killed When Auto Hits Freight.
Charles Fabry of Lake Forest, a gardener on the McCormick estate, was killed last night and Thomas Powers, also of Lake Forest, was severely injured when the latter ran his automobile into a Chicago and Northwestern freight train just outside of Lake Forest. According to Powers, he did not see the train and ran directly into it.

Investigate Case Involving Cop.
An investigation of an accident in which Miss Helen Ryan, 25 years old, 181 Keystone avenue, River Forest, was seriously injured, was asked yesterday. Miss Ryan's automobile was struck by a machine driven by Policeman A. Timm, Austin station.

Timm denied that he was at fault in the accident. Members of the Ryan family have announced that they will appeal next week to the state's attorney for the prosecution of Policeman Joseph Clegg of River Forest, who is said to have failed to report the accident or to hold Timm. Miss Ryan's brother, Phillip, said an attempt will be made to prosecute Timm for reckless driving.

N. Borwick, 49 years old, 297 New York avenue, Aurora, was taken to St. Luke's hospital last night after he had been severely injured when struck by an automobile driven by James Valunas, 22 years old, 1643 Girard street, day before yesterday.

A. EVANS AND H. GREELEY.
Bavaria, Ill., Aug. 18.—Your Mr.
Evans, who writes entertainingly on agricultural topics—although he does not know the difference between a steer and a cow, dead or alive—is being killed by the real honest-to-goodness dirt farmer, who classifies him with the leading story artists of the radio.

When Horace Greeley was editor of the New York Tribune, the poultry editor resigned and Horace told the farmer to ask him any question about poultry and he would answer through the Tribune.

The farmers piled him with questions and the first one was: "What does a city reared man, who never raised or headed poultry know about the business?"

This proved Greeley and his comeback was: "I have eaten poultry and eggs for more than forty years, and think that I am a better judge of a good or bad egg than any bee that ever lived." Greeley was a great editor, but he only failed himself, when he thought he was feeding the farmer.

That is the reason that Arthur cannot get his stuff across. C. T. CHAMBER.

GOVERNMENT HELPS.
Valparaiso, Aug. 20.—The laboring man came into his present position of insecurity by the help of our government destroying the law of supply and demand in labor by limiting immigration. No true American would want our laboring man to compete with the cheap labor of Europe.

Our industrialists have prepared by the help of our government in destroying the law of supply and demand of commodities, thereby creating a closed market. What is sauce for the goose ought to be sauce for the gander. The farmer's expenses have doubled by the contention of prosperity among the above said groups, while his income has remained the same, forcing 40 per cent of our population to buy in a closed market and insisting that they sell in an open market, competing with the slaves of other continents, is incompatible with stability and high country civilization.
HENRY BOKSAP.

ARE THE FARMERS PROSPEROUS?
Attica, Ind., Aug. 20.—Now that Tim Trotter has put its editorial O. K. on the report of Arthur Evans, let there be no dissenting voice among the hardy sons who may not yet have discovered what Arthur found.

If prosperity has not convinced you that he is around, just read Tim Trotter. The farmer is serene and smiling.
Has money in the bank, is not seeking credit. Stop croaking about hard times.
Just read the paper. I know we're prosperous; it says so in the paper.
One of yours.

ADS ON $1 BILLS.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—While my suggestion may seem unobtrusive, yet it will naturally aid the government in a monetary way. Let the photos of our ex-presidents on $1 bills be replaced with an advertisement, artistic of course, and I venture to say that the revenue derived will more than pay the entire cost of production.
This is a cold business proposition and deserves some study and consideration.
WALTER COCHRAN.

THE DEATH CLOCK.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—Referring to your death clock—no doubt you are doing your readers a service and preventing loss of life by the daily publication of lives lost by auto, guns, and mosquitoes. However,
I imagine, seeing the same thing every day causes loss of interest and influence and I would therefore suggest putting the "sting" in this publication by putting a shaded background to the clock of skull and crossbones, representing death.

Affairs Planned by Herman Gades on Impending Visit

BY NANCY B.—

Just about a fortnight, the sixth of next month, is to be exact, our three guests from South America, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gades, and their daughter, Miss Alicia Gades, announced that they were scheduled to arrive in this city on the 26th.

They will be the guests during their stay here of the Charles Garfield House in Lake Forest for the night. One of the gay events at the house on the social horizon is the dinner which the Kings will give for them on the night of their arrival.

The Gades have a twofold purpose in their visit to Chicago: The pleasant one is to spend again their many friends and the more onerous duty of collecting funds for their belongings in the house they built in Lake Forest almost two decades ago, which the Valley Foresters recently purchased from them.

The charming Gades house on the hill overlooking Rio de Janeiro, has been closed, as Mr. Gades is a twelve-month holiday from his position as Norwegian minister to the United States. He is now in the United States at the residence of his wife, who is a Norwegian minister to the United States.

During this time he and his family will travel to various parts of the United States, visiting friends and relatives. He is now in the United States at the residence of his wife, who is a Norwegian minister to the United States.

Day's News in Society

Announcements have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Percy B. Eckhart of Kenilworth for the wedding on Sept. 12 of their daughter, Eleanor, to Donald McLaughlin, graduate of Harvard university, son of the late Dr. McLaughlin. The service is to be read at the church in the afternoon at the Church of the Holy Comforter in Kenilworth.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Eckhart at 246 Cumberland avenue, Mr. McLaughlin is the son of the late Dr. McLaughlin, graduate of Harvard university, son of the late Dr. McLaughlin.

Announcements will be issued in word of the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Julia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Lancaster, Wis., to Robert McLaughlin of Edgemoor, Wis., on Sept. 12. The bride is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin.

GOOPS! A Daily Lesson in Manners for Children

BY GELETT BURGESS

Don't you see some weird sights these summer days? One of our columnists wrote the other day: "There is only one scandal left in life: a woman who is putting on flesh."

She sure is scandalizing all over the place, of late. Some of her sisters who aren't putting on flesh are contributing no mean share, either, with their figure exposés.

But it is the plump ones who go on and on about their feelings most. An Italian guide we once had couldn't resist an occasional intimate confidence about a place or a personage we would run into on our sight-seeing tour. He would preface his remarks with: "Please, please, Miss, if I seem to get rough."

So, excuse me, please, Miss, and Mrs., if I am guilty of seeming a bit rough. But I want to say something about the naughty wiggle of the uncurved plump. What I want to say is that it is not naughty, but downright vulgar. It is not naughty, but downright vulgar. It is not naughty, but downright vulgar.

WHAT'S WRONG HERE?

J. P. R. BURE BATHING IS IN high favor at this season. It is beneficial if not overdone. This is due not only to the change of air but to the saline properties of the water which act as a tonic upon the skin. You must gradually accustom yourself to salt bathing, and at first the water should be warm, and sufficient time allowed to lapse after eating.

White Chiffon Model Releases Tucks at Hem

by Corinne Lewis

NEW YORK.—(Special Correspondence.)—No woman's life is ever so full of chiffons that still another model cannot be tolerated. Certainly this truth is especially applicable to this season, which emphasizes chiffon constantly in both its plain and printed versions.

Today's model selects white for its chiffon and suggests several new methods of treatment. One of these is that fine tucks traversing the entire skirt are exceedingly effective when released and pressed out at the hem. This system of handling pleats, thus insuring the necessary flare below, is one that is being practiced widely these days and, far from being confined to these very small tucks, is often a feature of the wide hot variety. In this instance the unfolding of the tucks is accompanied by a hand of Val face.

Another smart effect, using a good deal of gray and black, was made up of gray and black herringbone suit, gray shirt with white stripes, and light gray cloth upper. A touch of color was furnished by a silk handkerchief in the breast pocket of gray back-spread and blue figure.
